The Rockford Area Chapter of AFP (Association of Fundraising Professionals)

2011 National Philanthropy Day Award Criteria

There are six awards promoted locally that are open for public nominations.

Outstanding Philanthropist Award:

This award recognizes an individual or family for contributions to one or more organizations in Northern Illinois. The individual or family must have a proven record of exceptional generosity through direct financial support and demonstrate outstanding civic and charitable responsibility.

Outstanding Corporation or Foundation:

Corporations or foundations are honored for outstanding commitment and financial support of philanthropic causes in Northern Illinois. The award recognizes a business or foundation whose generosity has greatly benefited the community, as well as encouraged and motivated others to assume leadership roles toward causes of philanthropy.

Outstanding Fundraising Volunteer Award:

This outstanding individual must have demonstrated exceptional leadership skills coordinating major fundraising campaigns and motivating groups of fundraising volunteers for the benefit of charitable institutions.

Outstanding Community Service Volunteer Award:

This outstanding individual must have made a significant impact by providing support through gifts of their time and talents to a number of organizations in the not-for-profit community.

Future Philanthropist Award:

This award honors an individual or group of young people, 18 to 24 years of age, for extraordinary volunteer fundraising efforts on behalf of philanthropic causes.

Presidential Youth Service Award:

This award recognizes exemplary leadership and generosity of spirit in an elementary, middle or high school student or group of students whose selfless efforts have benefitted a good cause in the community. Young people who receive this award represent the best of humanity and good citizenship and serve as an inspiration to all.

Please submit an individual or group photograph, or a company logo with each nomination form.

The deadline for all nominations is Friday, October 7, 2011.

Please submit completed nominations (and photos) on the accompanying Philanthropy Day Awards Nomination Form to:
